

ladies and gentlemen, you will now	we will recess now for lunch you, ladies and gentlemen, are the	during the recess, do not at this time, ladies and gentlemen	it is now time to recess for the day in the morning, ladies and gentlemen	recesses in the morning and afternoon return to the jury room	rest of the testimony you are the jury sworn to try	testimony of the witnesses before the jury can return	based on the testimony your duty as the jury	listen to the testimony and do not explain the procedure	we will adjourn now procedure to be followed	adjourn for today and then the procedure will be	after we adjourn this evening what was the procedure	and adjourn the case in time presumed to be innocent	an indictment is the way guilty or innocent in this case	charged with an indictment innocent until proven otherwise	indictment is not evidence of the defendant is innocent	the indictment will be returned at the very first opportunity	judge will instruct you is given the opportunity to	instruct the jury on the rules take this opportunity now	get ready for me to instruct the opportunity to see	can instruct me on how to making a decision about	that will be your verdict hard decision to think about	verdict must be unanimous decision of the jury on the	for you to decide on a verdict that will be your decision	sign the verdict form will begin to deliberate on	preponderance means the greater deliberate on the issues	failed to prove by a preponderance time to deliberate	the preponderance of the the jury can deliberate the case what we call their summations	through negligence by the through the summations this	negligence against this defendant summations by the attorneys	proof of negligence on the the summations will take	there was no negligence determining the credibility of the	their demeanor on the stand credibility is the weight	demeanor while testifying the jury will decide what credibility	observe the demeanor of what credibility the witness has	consider his demeanor when Carol Adams, Huntington Junior College	Jury Charge Drills 1