

Theory Principles

- 1. For clarification, their unification was justification for me.
- 2. A slight modification must be made for ratification.
- 3. I had to cancel my appointment with the obstetrician.
- 4. With great gratification, I made this simplification.
- 5. She insists on using artificial sweetener.
- 6. The publication was about the installation of insulation.
- 7. It's crucial to our success that we show a unified front.
- 8. A combination of inclination and application are what's needed.
- 9. My calculation of the population was purely speculation.
- 10. He is a staunch advocate, and I doubt he will abdicate that position.

11. Please articulate, then circulate your position.

12. Did you calculate or tabulate this?

13. The fact that she fabricates is a great indicator.

14. Our delegation had a premonition about the intoxication of the musician.

15. The injunction brought a sanction regarding the extinction of cows.

16. The perception is that this contraption was not right at its inception.

17. People need instruction on this invention.

18. The presidential race is essential to our state.

19. I am partial to special, beneficial food.

20. I will okay the omission of the ozone.

21. He was irate about the ideal island.

22. This election will eliminate and erase party lines.

23. The author was awkward around the auditor.

24. I am aware they will avoid the attack aboard the boat.

25. Amen to that!